Which Emotion?

Read through these following scenarios and draw on the face opposite to show what you think the person is feeling. You can write words around the face to describe what they are feeling in more detail, or even what they might be thinking!

1. It is their first day at secondary school. They have arrived at the school door and can't see anyone they know.

2. This person has just been told that their parents are separating and will be living in different houses.

Which Emotion?

3. This person is going on holiday today and is on their way to the airport to get on the plane.

4. This person is sitting at a desk getting ready to do a test/exam.

5. This person is standing up in assembly to receive an award.

Which Emotion?

6. This person has moved house today, and is sleeping in their new bedroom for the first time.

7. This person has just been told that someone they love has died.

8. This person has lost their temper and has hit someone else. They are sat outside the head teacher's office.

Emotions Board Game

Instructions

Roll the die and move your game piece that number of squares. Read the emotion written in the square and say a time when you have felt this emotion e.g. I feel happy when I am riding my bike.
